Funeral Held For Mr. David Paul

The Irma district was shocked to hear of the sudden passing of David Paul on December 27, 1935.

He was born in Nainaburgh, Scotland, on the 20th of March, 1886 and came to Canada in 1926 working that year in the Edmonton and Provost districts. In 1927 he went to Trail, B.C. returning to Irma in 1934. He worked in the district until 1941. Mr. Paul then began farming on his own, making his home with his sister, Mrs. John Dunbar until the time of his death. He was a member of the Elks' lodge, one sister, Mrs. J. Dunbar and one brother Jim at Ocean Falls, B.C., four sisters and two brothers in Scotland.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. H. W. Ingles in the Irma United church. Members of the Elks lodge conducted a ritual at the cemetery. McLeod's funeral home of Wainwright was in charge of arrangements. Pall bearers were Messrs. Ross McFarland Jr., Cliff Jones, G. E. Fischer, G. Hockett, Gar Coulman and Eric Prior.

Beautiful floral tributes were received from the following:

Margaret, Jack and Jim; Bill and Julia; John and Ann; Hamish and Bob; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fischer; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meyer and family; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Whitley and family; the Hotel staff and the Irma Elks lodge.

Weekly Inspirational Corner

(Sponsored by an Irma Times reader)

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on Him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

For as the Father has life in Himself; so hath He given to the Son to have life in Himself; And hath given Him authority to execute judgment also, because He is the Son of man.

—St. John 5:24-27.

FARMERS' BONSPIEL

The ninth annual Farmers' bonspiel commenced on December 27th with 21 rinks taking part, seven less than last year. The weather conditions, though the coldest of the season so far, could still be rated as good. Owring to the exceptionally mild winter, no curling had been done before the bonspiel.

With the exception of the grand challenge winners, who won all their games quite handily, most rinks were evenly matched and there were some close games in the final stages of the 2nd and 3rd events.

Winning the grand challenge by the McMillan foursome, enabled Neil to have his name on the challenge trophy for the 2nd time as a winning skip. His wife, Ruby, assisted him on both occasions, the first time with Roy Burton and J. Dunbar and this time with Keith Currie and Fred Kuwica.

1st Event:

1. Neil MacMillan, Keith Currie, Fred Kuwica, Ruby MacMillan. (4 wool blankets from McFarland and Co.)

2. Milt Younker, K. Kirkus, F. Bovenkamp, Jennie Barber. (3 quilts Marvelube oil each from P. E. Jones and Co.)

3. Eldon Fenton, Ralph Mark, C. Kirkus, Emma Mark. (4 gal. antifreeze from K. Coffin.)

4. Allan Larson, Peggy Smallwood, Lorrain Smallwood, Cynthia Ballentine. (Oil change and grease job from Corner Service garage.)

2nd Event:

1. E. Jones, E. Jackson, C. Pyle, L. Ballentine. (4 Maple Leaf hams from Irma Co-op.)

2. A. Cook, Bill Dootson, J. Kennedy. (4 clocks from Fred Jack hardware.)

3. Cliff Smallwood, Marion Smallwood, Glen Smallwood, Jean Dempsey. (Cigarettes and lighters from Harold Barber.)

4. Geo. Fischer, Marg Fischer, Alice Fischer, K. Gubrun. (Grease job and oil change from Central garage.)

3rd Event:

2. J. Mackay, Irene Mackay, Bill Veer, Mrs. Veer. (Four 25 pound pails of grease from C. Angquist.)

3. Joe Burton, Ivor Thurston, E. Meyer, A. Darling. (4 gal. antifreeze from Robt. Hanson.)

4. D. Mackay, A. Smallwood, N. Fuder, G. Larson. (4 boxes of chocolates from J. Pond.)

Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Fischer, pioneer residents of this district who had been married 50 years on Christmas Day, celebrated this happy occasion by holding "open house" for their many friends on December 27th.

Their living room was gay with bouquets of flowers from relatives and friends and the table was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake baked by their daughter, Mrs. Darling.

There were 65 signatures on the Guest Book that afternoon and evening. Mr. A. C. Archibald, on behalf of their friends, presented the bride and groom of 50 Christmases with a well filled purse.

Telegrams were received from Mr. and Mrs. J. Stead of Lethbridge, two nieces of Mr. Fischer's in Detroit and from grandson F. O. Donald Fischer in Germany.

Many were the tales of old times recalled that day.

Mr. Fischer was born in Drayton, Ont., in 1874 and Mrs. Fischer, the former Alice Pettigrew, was born at Calistow, Ont., in 1878.

Mr. Fischer had made a trip to Calgary as a lad, he had farmed in Manitoba as a young man and made a trip to Edmonton also. In the spring of 1906 he decided to come west to stay, so in April that year he again came to Edmonton bringing his young wife with him. With the Coultmans, the Elliots and Mr. Cliff Toley they all set out for Irma, coming by train as far as Mannville.

Mrs. Fischer has special reason to remember the day she and her husband set out from Mannville. First they went to a Mannville restaurant to eat about breakfast. As they entered a young lad was trying to coax a reluctant stove to burn more briskly. He tried to rekindle it several times and then produced a can of kerosene with most unfortunate results. The lad was severely burned while Mrs. Fischer's hair and the fur she was wearing were scorched by the blaze. She rushed into the street and must have dropped a bag containing a new hat. This was discovered later, trampled flat. Mr. and Mrs. Fischer cannot now recall if they did get any breakfast that morning or not.

That day's adventures were not yet over. They had to ford the coulee with a team and wagon. This successfully accomplished, they journeyed on until within 1 1/2 miles from the home-stead of Mr. John Watson of happy memory. Here their horse stepped and they were able to proceed to their home-stead in the Alma Mater district where they made a home noted for its hospitality and took an active part in community life.

Mr. Fischer served on the council for a number of years, also on the Alma Mater school board and the board of the Irma rural high school.

Mrs. Fischer is still active in the work of the W.A. and the W.M.S. and both she and her husband have been loyal supporters of the Irma United church.

Their two children, George and Orril (Mrs. Darling), both reside in the Irma district. There are 12 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild.

All Irma and district wish Mr. and Mrs. Fischer many more happy anniversaries.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to Rev. Ingles for his comforting message and to the Choir, the Elks lodge, the pallbearers and to all our friends and neighbors for their kind cards of sympathy extended to us, also to those who helped in any way during our recent and bereavement.

Sincerely,

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dunbar and family and Jim.

Farewell Held For Long-Time Residents

Friends from far and near gathered in the Albert School Auditorium on Monday evening to farewell two long-time residents of the district, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bars, who are moving to Irma. This was also the date of their 43rd wedding anniversary.

The program led off with a sing-song of oldtime songs with Mrs. W. Parsons at the piano. After an interval of card-playing and dancing, Mr. and Mrs. Bars were conducted to seats of honor at the front of the hall. Mrs. A. Fleming sang the lovely solo, "One Day When We Were Young."

Mrs. W. D. Ramsey, expressing the regret of the Albert folks in parting with these neighbors and wishing them every happiness in their new home, pinned a dainty corsage on Mrs. Bars's shoulder. Mr. John Allen spoke of his long association with Mr. and Mrs. Bars, and called on Mr. Eric Prior who contributed some interesting reminiscences.

Mr. Allen, on behalf of their friends, presented the couple with a chiming clock and a purse of money.

Mrs. C. Archibald, on behalf of the Buffalo Coulee W.L., presented Mrs. Bars with a cup and saucer.

Mr. and Mrs. Bars expressed their heartfelt thanks and issued a cordial invitation to one and all to visit them in their new home.

A lovely lunch served by the district ladies brought the evening to a close.

CELEBRATES

80th BIRTHDAY

During the afternoon and evening of January 2, Miss A. Flewelling, well known and highly respected oldtimer of Irma, received at the home of herself and her sister, Mrs. D. Tate, some fifty-five friends who called to wish her, on her eightieth birthday, many more years of health and contentment.

Roses, carnations and chrysanthemums indoors combined with the sunny mild weather outdoors and the gay-mood of Miss Flewelling to make the gathering one of the most enjoyable of the holiday season.

The birthday cake, beautifully decorated by Mrs. H. Riley in pink and pale green, was cut by Miss Flewelling and shared by the guests.

At the afternoon gathering, Mrs. D. Gunn, on behalf of the many well-wishers, made the presentation of a floor lamp and a purse of money.

Miss Flewelling replied with feeling and wit.

Hostesses for the occasion were: Messdames S. Brown, H. Black, K. Coffin, C. Milne, D. Gunn, A. R. McRoberts, H. Barber, L. Meier, M. Palmer.

We would like to thank the many friends who sent such an abundance of Christmas cards and notes to your humble scribe this Christmas and New Year's.

The card which travelled the furthest came from Ankara, Turkey, from Mr. and Mrs. McKeen, Betsy and Ian and their small son, Alastair, seem comfortably settled in that far away land where Jan is employed on some engineering project. We are waiting for the day when his work will bring the family to Canada.

Kinsella News

December 21st

Mr. B. C. Carpenter, who has been holidaying in the East, spent Christmas with relatives in Ontario and arrived home at the weekend.

A capacity crowd enjoyed a concert put on by Grades 1-8 of Kinsella school on Wednesday evening, Dec. 18. At the close of this entertainment, Santa arrived and distributed sacks of treats to all the children present.

On Friday afternoon, December 20, the classrooms of the Kinsella school held their annual Christmas parties which Santa also visited and handed out the gifts from the gaily decorated Christmas trees.

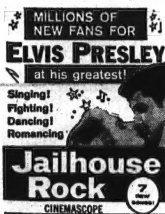

Before leaving Kinsella, Santa again made his appearance at the United church where the children of the Sunday School were enjoying their Christmas party. After a programme, which consisted of carol singing, a tableau, recitations and piano-forte solos, Santa in his own jovial way, visited with the children and gave them their gifts from the Christmas tree. Lunch was served in the basement and on leaving, each child received a bag of treats.

Students who have arrived to spend Christmas holidays with their families include Marvin Horinek, George Loades, Herb Armitage, George Carpenter, Leland Garvie, Edward Overbo and Larry Harris.

Speaking of the weather, it has been unusually mild for this time of the year and at this writing the prediction is for further mild weather. It has interfered with skating, hockey and curling activities. The weather has suited cattle feeders, and I should say, most of us. Spring can't be too far away now.

Northern Nuggets

The Buffalo Coulee W.I. will meet on Thursday, Jan. 17 at the home of Mrs. C. L. Currie. Hostesses: Mrs. Archibald and Mrs. H. Barrs. Roll Call: A display for Baby's Layette for Korea.

We are very sorry to report a big decrease in our 1957 contribution to the British and Foreign Bible Society. The amount sent was $33.25. Owing to sickness and icy roads we were unable to make our regular canvass. Many thanks to those who so kindly sent in their contribution.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnston, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Roebuck of Vermilion and Mrs. E. B. Allen of Mannville attended the 43rd wedding anniversary celebration in honor of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Barrs on Jan. 6.

The winter of 1957-58 will surely go down in the history of the Alberta community as the year of the mumps. It has been especially unpopular among our resident residents. Among the most recent to succumb were Mrs. A. Fleming, Mrs. E. Prior and Mrs. L. Savage.

Miss Joan Fleming and Miss Vera Prior returned to Edmonton Sunday to complete their studies, but Mrs. Joan—Monday morning came and with it the mumps, so Mr. and Mrs. A. Fleming made a hurried trip to the city to bring her home.

Glen-Coa Gleanings

Fine weather during the Christmas vacation made it a pleasant surprise for Glen-Coa folk made the most of it except where flu and mumps made their unwelcome visitation and upset holiday plans. Many homes had children or other relatives spend a day or so at Christmas. Those from away whom we saw or heard about were the following:

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Graham Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Connolly, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Erickson and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. Proulx, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dunlop; Rev. and Mrs. L. R. Likness, Little Mark, and Norma Likness; Oren Spring and Mr. Alfred Larson; Misses Della Symington and Marian Johnson; while the B. Gulbraa family had visitors from Consort, Victoria, Viking and Dapp. It was nice to see Mr. and Mrs. L. Peterson and children, too, and to learn they like their new home very well.

It is good to hear them say that they missed their neighbors, though. Then there were Mr. and Mrs. Don MacKay and family whom we heard paid a visit too.

Now Miss Edythe Gulbraa has returned to her studies at Camrose College.

Miss Norma Likness left this week for Redwood City, California, to carry on her nursing duties in the sunny south.

Highlights of the Christmas time were: the Sunday School program on the 23rd; the beautiful Christmas day service; the Luther League New Year's social and Watchnight program; Sharon W.M.F.'s first meeting in 1958 at the Erickson home.

Thus another New Year is ushered in. May each one of us face the future with courage and increased faith. A happy New Year to one and all!

WITH THE District Agriculturist

By J. S. Duncan
Vitamin A for Cattle

In recent years a lot of unthriftiness and sickness in cattle has been traced directly to a deficiency of Vitamin A. This vitamin is probably most important for breeding stock. Cows which are deficient may produce weak, blind or dead calves. Other calfhood complaints such as scours, pneumonia and convulsions may be caused by lack of vitamin A. If cattle are not getting good green hay or silage it is likely that they are not getting enough vitamin A and that some should be given as a supplement. Now is the time to start giving it to breeding stock and other cattle. The cows should get much more than growing or fattening cattle.

Durum Wheat

Many farmers are wondering about durum wheat as a cash crop. It must be kept in mind that all durum varieties are much later in maturing than thatcher, and for this reason durum is not recommended in Alberta except south of a line running east, and west through Calgary. The use of rust resistant varieties in the durum growing areas of Manitoba and Saskatchewan is likely to mean that there will be very little demand for durum grown in Alberta and no demand for any but the higher grades. This means that the chance of selling durum grown in this district is just about zero.

Seed Cleaning Plant

Prospects are bright that the municipal seed cleaning plant will be in operation for next fall's grain. Before construction plans can definitely go ahead the remainder of the shares must be sold and a permanent board of directors elected. Canvassers will be out this month throughout the M.D. Anyone who isn't contacted by a canvasser can get their share from Ralph Congdon or from me.

In Memoriam

ARCHIBALD: In loving memory of a dear mother, Sarah Josephine Archibald, who passed away January 9th, 1951.

"Dear the memories silently kept,
Of one we loved, and will never forget.
Though absent, she is ever near,
Still loved, still missed and ever dear."

Ever remembered by husband and family.

Jarrow News

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Firkus spent the holidays with his folks and grandmother at Stevens Point, Wisconsin.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wright were more than surprised when neighbors and friends met at the Jarrow hall on Thursday, Dec. 19 to honor them on their 25th wedding anniversary. Carl Soneff, as master of ceremonies, had everyone rise and sing "For they are jolly good fellows" as the honored guests entered the hall. The Anniversary Waltz with Percy and Ethel leading, and other couples joining in, set the stage for a very pleasant evening.

Jim Lingley and his guitar delighted the audience with his songs. A delicious lunch was served. Then Mr. and Mrs. Wright were presented with a check of $187 Rogers Silverware with the best wishes of their many friends. Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. D. Dewart, Mr. and Mrs. Handy, Mr. and Mrs. C. Beamish and their families from Viking and Remarl.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Miller whose marriage took place in the city recently. Andrew spent many of his younger days in the Batt district.

The Christmas service with Rev. H. W. Inglis was very well attended. The girls' choir, accompanied by Carolyn Swingen on the accordion, Larry Mark's song and Shirley Swingen's songs were all appreciated so much.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McLaren, their small daughter and Floyd Lockhart spent Christmas at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lockhart. Miss Lily Stevens of Edison visited at the Lockhart home last week.

Stan and Eddie Orzechski were home for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Soneff and Elvina spent a couple of days with C. Soneff at New Year's.

There will be service at the church on Sunday, Jan. 19 at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. O. Likness and the pupils of the Jarrow school are to be commended on the splendid Christmas program which they presented at the school on Dec. 20.

The Best community held their party on Dec. 22 with both old and young taking part in the program. The "Trials of a Teacher" with Mr. Ralph Mark portraying Miss Grundy with Jugghead, Veronica, Archie and Betty as pupils was humorous to say the least.

The audience nearly collapsed when G. Bridgeman dressed as Miss Inga Svenson of Minneapolis, Minnesota, came out on stage and told of her many difficulties and troubles.

With so much talent as we saw displayed, how about getting up a good play in the near future?

Santa, with a great deal of humor, brought gifts and treats to everyone. A bountiful lunch rounded out an evening of fun and merriment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Soneff and family spent Boxing Day in the city.

Douglas Soneff held the lucky ticket on the draw for a turkey at Jarrow while the Orzechski won a watch at Kingsella.

Gilbert and Cathy Mullen of Edmonton spent part of the holidays with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Comley. Mrs. Comely accompanied them back to the city where they all made the acquaintance of a new sister and granddaughter.

Pete Belton has gone to Hinton where he is employed hauling pulpwood.

Mack Holt visited with his brothers during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Wirtz of Marwayne visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. Young on Sunday.

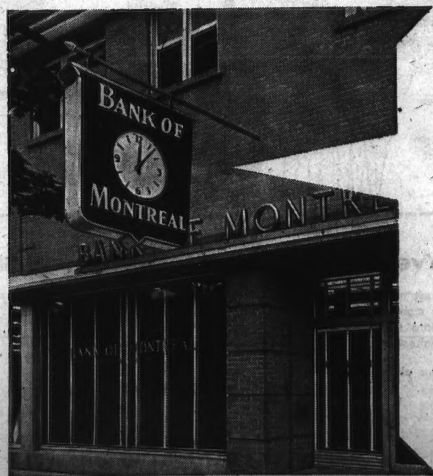

The Beltons are enjoying their new TV set.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Bilo and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lovenseth were guests at C. Soneff's last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Meskins and family and Mrs. E. Brubaker spent Friday and Saturday in the city with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Marks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Beer came from Calgary to spend Christmas and New Year's with the home folks.
